Following the easing of coronavirus (COVID-19) restrictions in the UK, it is expected that shareholders will be able to attend the AGM in person this year. However, in light of the uncertainty as to any further COVID-19 measures that may be put in place by the UK Government, the Company encourages shareholders to submit their voting instructions in advance by appointing the Chairman of the meeting as their proxy. We strongly encourage you to vote by proxy whether or not you intend to attend the Company's AGM in person. This will ensure that votes are registered in accordance with shareholders' wishes regardless of any restrictions or disruption around the AGM.

If the proxy is being appointed in relation to less than your full voting entitlement, please enter in the box next to the proxy holder's name (see reverse) the number of shares in relation to which they are authorised to act as your proxy. If returned without an indication as to how the proxy shall vote on any particular matter, the proxy will exercise his discretion as to whether, and if so how, he votes (or if this proxy form has been issued in respect of a designated account for a shareholder, the proxy will exercise his discretion as to whether, and if so how, he votes). We strongly encourage you to vote by proxy whether or not you intend to attend the Company's AGM in person. For this purpose, the time of receipt will be taken to be the time (as determined by the timestamp generated by the CREST system) from which the issuer's agent is able to retrieve the message. The Company may treat as invalid a proxy appointment sent by CREST in the circumstances set out in Regulation 35(5)(a) of the Uncertificated Securities Regulations 2001.
